Beverley Film Society Announces New Season's Films

Â

An exciting year of world cinema has been planned by Beverley Film Society, which throws open its doors again on Thursday 14th September at Parkway Cinema Beverley. In addition to its regular programming of ten films, screened on the second Thursday of every month between September and June, the Society's committee has also added a couple of extra film nights into the mix to ensure members get the very most from their membership.

Â

Chair of Beverley Film Society, Pippa Nixon, said:

Â

"Hull 2017 has been amazing for our area, giving local people a wide and eclectic choice of cultural activities to choose from and we are excited to add to this with our new season of films.

Â

"We will be welcoming back our regular members and invite those who are thinking of joining the Society to pop along and join our film club, which is now heading into its twelfth season of films. In addition to our regular monthly film slots we have added an extra two film nights, especially for our members. The Society is also involved in the very first East Riding Film Festival, with an afternoon of all things Judy Garland - featuring a talk, memorabilia and films on 15th October, which is open to all members of the public.

Â

"Parkway Cinema is an accessible venue with a caf  bar and there is also free local parking near the cinema after 5.30pm. We are ready to greet all local lovers of film to our first screening on 14th September when we will be showing the French comedy drama Irreplaceable."

Â

Membership details are available online at www.beverleyfilmsociety.org.uk and tickets can be booked via the Parkway Cinema website www.beverley.parkwaycinemas.co.uk or bought on the Society's film nights.
