

Swanland Screen

La La Land

Â

the winner of six Oscars, is coming to Swanland Village Hall at 7.30pm on Saturday 16th September so make sure to note this in your diary now. The story of two proper L.A. dreamers, a suavely charming soft-spoken jazz pianist and a brilliant vivacious playwright, while waiting for their big break, attempt to reconcile aspirations and relationship in a magical old-school romance. This is just the first film of the season so make a note of 7.30 on the third Saturday of each month when you will be able to watch other films such as Dunkirk, Lion, Victoria and Abdul. Tickets available on the door which opens at 7pm. Adult cost £4 Schoolchildren £2. Refreshments available at the interval. For details of this and future films please visit <<http://www.swanlandvillagehall.info/forthcoming-events.htm>>.

SWANLAND LIVE SHOWS

After a summer break, Swanland Village Association are pleased to announce that there will be three wonderful and diverse shows during the autumn season in Swanland Village Hall - see this magazine in the coming months for further details. We are delighted to announce that Ricardo will be bringing his Spanish flamenco music and dance on Saturday 7th October. He brings a highly skilled performance and a deeply evocative touch of fiery Spain to the show. Ricardo's trio have performed at the Edinburgh Festival on several occasions and he has recently returned from a residency for the Spanish Embassy in East Africa. Their unique delivery of the Spanish artform from classic to contemporary including a look at the deep roots of flamenco, some Spanish classical music and a touch of World influence create a show like you have never seen before which will expand your awareness and bring you joy! Flossie Malavialle, the French folk singer with the Geordie accent returns, for the seventh successive year, to entertain in her inimitable style on Saturday 29th October and the new play by Neil Gore about the Grunwick Strike, We Are The Lions Mr Manager, will be performed on Sunday 12th November. Ticket prices are £8 (adults) and £4 (children) with a discount for SVA members paying in advance - from Yvonne on 01482 634863. Please see <<http://www.swanlandvillagehall.info/forthcoming-events.htm>> for further details.

^