Indigo Moon Theatre

Saturday February 24th - MERMARELLA SWIMS LONGER FOR ADDITIONAL DATES DUE TO POPULAR DEMAND!

Award-winning Hull based shadow theatre company, Indigo Moon is delighted to announce an extended run of its popular family show, Mermarella - Cinderella of The Sea

Having enchanted audiences over the past few weeks, artistic co-director of Indigo Moon Theatre,Â Anna Ingleby explains, â€œI am thrilled that the people of Hull have supported our shadow puppet show by filling our theatre for its initial run. We heard that people were very disappointed to have missed it the first time around, so we decided to add three further dates; February 24th, March 3rd & 10th. It is fabulous that families are able to share our passion for storytelling. Our Mermarella story is a new spin on Cinderella â€œ which gives families something to think and talk about. This ancient tale has been adapted to speak to us about modern day matters â€œ such as accepting one another whatever our differences. It is also full of fun and we really enjoy interacting with the audience. After the show children get a chance to try their hand as puppeteers too!â€™

FURTHER INFORMATION

Kidnapped from the fresh blue river water, far away to the salty green sea, will Mermarella ever be accepted and find love again in this foreign kingdom? The story best known as Cinderella shape-shifts into the world of the seas; linking nations and hosting sea creatures from both fresh and salt water. (Must Mermarella really become something else to achieve her dream, or might her differences enchant and inspire the dances everyone shares? Puppetry and shadow theatre for thinking families and the young at heart of all ages.
