

East Riding Cricket Society

The East Riding Cricket Society

Programme 2018 to 2019

East Riding Cricket Society returns to the King Billy this winter with another top-class programme. Two local stars lead the line-up: Mark Robinson OBE is the World Cup-winning coach of England Women's Cricket; Yorkshire CCC's Steve Patterson is the newly appointed Club Captain and will be joined by Chief Executive Mark Arthur and Commercial Director Andy Dawson. After swapping Test stardom for a prison cell, Chris Lewis has started afresh - playing club cricket, coaching, and sharing his remarkable, redemptive life story. Glamorgan all-rounder Malcolm Nash captained his county, scored the fastest B&H Cup century, coached in the USA ... and fifty years ago made sporting history as the bowler hit by Sir Garfield Sobers for six sixes in a six-ball over - a first in senior cricket. Journalist and broadcaster Pat Murphy (BBC Radio 5 Live) has covered all the big cricket and football stories in a thirty-year career. Alan Butcher, ex-England opener and Surrey captain and coach, faced a very different challenge when he accepted an offer to coach Zimbabwe ...

Join the conversation - everyone welcome!

No formalities - just come along and say hello.

Â£15 a year / Â£5 a meeting (deducted from subsequent 2018/19 membership).

Â

Venue: Brewery Bar, King William IV, Hallgate, Cottingham HU16 4BD - 7.45pm.

Raffle: top prizes monthly - including YCCC match tickets

Website: <http://ercsoc.blogspot.co.uk/>

More information: E: ercsoc@gmail.com / T: 01482 861848

PROGRAMME 2018/19

2018

10 October: Chris Lewis (Surrey, Leics, Notts & England)

14 November: Steve Patterson, Mark Arthur & Andy Dawson (YCCC Evening)

12 December: Malcolm Nash (Glamorgan)

2019

9 January: Mark Robinson OBE (Northants, Yorks & Sussex; Head Coach, England Women)

13 February: Pat Murphy (BBC Radio 5 Live)

13 March: Alan Butcher (Surrey, Glamorgan & England; ex-Head Coach, Zimbabwe)